

ALYAS 2019

Project ALYAS (AMO Lectures for Young Asia Scholars) fosters long-term relationships and cooperation among young professionals, experts and practitioners. Our goal is to prepare the next generation of leaders in the field of Asian affairs. Be one of them!

Do you want to..

- better understand crucial issues that will play an important role in Asia's future prospects?
- get practical experience and learn new skills by working on real-world problems of public and private sector?
- expand your professional network?

Main theme of ALYAS 2019

EU-East Asia relations in the times of Donald Trump's world order and issues related to politics and diplomacy, economics and business, defence and security and innovations and entrepreneurship.

Locations and timeline:

1st session: Prague, March 28-30, 2019 (Thursday afternoon – Saturday afternoon)

2nd session: Prague, May 2-4, 2019 (Thursday afternoon – Saturday afternoon)

How to apply?

- send us your cover letter in English (1 page) or video essay (max 3 min) and your CV
- fill in the application form (go to www.amo.cz/alyas/)

Who can apply?

- Graduate students and young professionals with prior work experience and interest for Asian affairs who are based in the Czech Republic and speak English fluently
- Successful applicants will have strong willingness to get involved and contribute to the teamwork

APPLY NOW!

More info at: www.amo.cz/alyas

Contact: Blanka Šoulavá, blanka.soulava@amo.cz

The program is supported by Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Prague.